8 ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

10 Re: Dkt. No. 29

11

12 GS Holistic, LLC alleges trademark infringement and false designation of origin against 13 Athar Abbasi individually and Athar Abbasi d.b.a. 420 Smoke Palace. (Dkt. No. 1.¹) Defendants

14 failed to appear, and the Clerk entered default against each of them. (Dkt. No. 21.) Plaintiff's 15 motion for default judgment is now pending before the Court. (Dkt. No. 23.) After considering 16 the motion and response to the Court's subsequent Order to Show Cause, the Court DENIES the 17 motion for default judgment without prejudice based on failure properly serve the summons and 18 complaint.

20 PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

21 Plaintiff filed its complaint on October 27, 2023 alleging trademark infringement claims.

22 (Dkt. No. 1.) After Defendants failed to appear, GS moved for entry of default which was granted.

23 (Dkt. Nos. 20, 21.) Plaintiff then filed the now pending motion for entry of default judgment.

24 (Dkt. No. 23.) Because the Court had concerns regarding service, it ordered Plaintiff to show 25 cause as to how service was proper. (Dkt. No. 27.) Plaintiff's response contends service was 26 proper under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e)(2)(B), but requests "leave to reserve the 1 Defendants to avoid dismissal” if the Court finds service improper. (Dkt. No. 27.)

2 DISCUSSION

3 “A federal court does not have jurisdiction over a defendant unless the defendant has been 4 served properly under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4.” Direct Mail Specialists, Inc. v. Eclat Computerized 5 Techs., Inc., 840 F.2d 685, 688 (9th Cir. 1988). Therefore, before granting default judgment, a 6 district court should ensure the adequacy of the service of process on the party against whom 7 default judgment is requested. See Bee Creek Photography v. Office Yoga, LLC, No. 23-CV-8 04375-JCS, 2024 WL 2875103, at *3 (N.D. Cal. May 8, 2024) (stating the court considers the 9 adequacy of service of process when evaluating the merits of a motion for default judgment).

10 A default entered in the absence of proper service of process may be set aside as void. See 11 Mason v. Genisco Tech. Corp., 960 F.2d 849, 851 (9th Cir. 1992) (reversing district court’s grant 12 of summary judgment on grounds the default judgment entered against the plaintiff in a previous 13 action involving the same parties was void and had no res judicata effect because the complaint in 14 the previous action was not properly served). When the party seeking a default judgment has not 15 shown that the defendant was provided with adequate notice of an action, “it is inappropriate to 16 conclude the defendant has failed to plead or otherwise defend” under Federal Rules of Civil 17 Procedure Rule 55(a). McFadden v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Tr. Co., No. 2:10-CV-03004 JAM, 2012
18 WL 2839810, at *2 (E.D. Cal. July 10, 2012) (internal citations and quotation marks omitted), 19 report and recommendation adopted, No. CIV-S-10-3004-JAM, 2012 WL 3756579 (E.D. Cal.
20 Aug. 28, 2012). The service of process must be “in substantial compliance with Rule 4.” Jes Solar 21 Co. Ltd. v. Tong Soo Chung, 725 F. App’x 467, 470 (9th Cir.), amended on denial of reh’g, 716 F.
22 App’x 635 (9th Cir. 2018) (internal citations and quotation marks omitted).

23 Plaintiff bears the burden of proving service of process was proper. Brockmeyer v. May, 24 383 F.3d 798, 801 (9th Cir. 2004). Specifically, Plaintiff must demonstrate it has met its burden 25 of “demonstrating legally sufficient service of process in accordance with the requirements” of 26 Rule 4. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4; Downing v. Wanchek, No. CIV S-07-1599 JAM EFB, 2009 WL
27 256502, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2009), report and recommendation adopted, No. CIVS07-1599
28 JAM EFB, 2009 WL 1211658 (E.D. Cal. Apr. 29, 2009). Here, for the reasons explained below,

1 Plaintiff has not met its burden as to either the individual defendant or the business defendant.

2 A. The Substitute Service Requirements are Not Met

3 1. Service on Mr. Abbasi

4 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e)(2)(B) allows for service on an individual by leaving 5 the summons and complaint with a person of “suitable age and discretion who resides” at the 6 defendant’s “dwelling or usual place of abode.” Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e)(1) also 7 authorizes service on an individual in accordance with state law. Under California law, after 8 attempting to personally serve a defendant, substituted service of process may be made on 9 individuals as follows:

10 If a copy of the summons and complaint cannot with reasonable 11 diligence be personally delivered to the person to be served, as 12 specified in Section 416.60, 416.70, 416.80, or 416.90, a summons 13 may be served by leaving a copy of the summons and complaint at 14 the person's dwelling house, usual place of abode, usual place of 15 business, or usual mailing address other than a United States Postal 16 Service post office box, in the presence of a competent member of the 17 household or a person apparently in charge of his or her office, place 18 of business, or usual mailing address other than a United States Postal 19 Service post office box, at least 18 years of age, who shall be informed 20 of the contents thereof, and by thereafter mailing a copy of the 21 summons and of the complaint by first-class mail, postage prepaid to 22 the person to be served at the place where a copy of the summons and 23 complaint were left. Service of a summons in this manner is deemed 24 complete on the 10th day after the mailing.

25 Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 415.20(b).

26 “The process server, or other persons with personal knowledge of the facts, must set forth 27 in the proof of service facts showing that the various requirements were complied with [Sections 28 417.10(a), 417.20(a)].” Judicial Council Comment to Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 415.20(b). “[T]he burden is upon the plaintiff to show reasonable diligence to effect personal service and each case must be judged upon its own facts.” Evartt v. Superior Court, 89 Cal. App. 3d 795, 801 (Cal. Ct.
App. 1979). Although there is no established formula for reasonable diligence, “[t]wo or three attempts to personally serve defendant at a ‘proper place’ ordinarily qualifies as ‘reasonable diligence.’” Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide: California Civil Procedure Before Trial, ¶ 4:198 (The Rutter Group June 2019) (citing cases).

1 The proof of service here indicates service on individual defendant Athar Abbasi was made 2 at 49006 Feather Grass Ter, Fremont, CA 94539 via substituted service. (Dkt. No. 17.) The 3 summons and complaint were left with “Rahida Abbasi—Occupant/Accepting Service” at 4 “home.” (Id. at 1.) The process server’s declaration, attached to the proof of service, states he 5 attempted personal service two times before using substitute service. (Id. at 3.) After reviewing 6 the proof of service, the Court ordered Plaintiff show cause because the proof of service does not 7 include any facts as to “Rahida Abbasi,” the person served. (Dkt. No. 17 at 1.) In particular, it 8 does not indicate this individual was “a person apparently in charge,” that the individual was at 9 least 18 years of age, or that the individual was “informed of the contents,” as section 415.20(b) 10 requires.

11 In response to the Order to Show Cause, Plaintiff contends service was proper because:

12 11. On November 19, 2023, on its third attempt, the Plaintiff served 13 Defendant Athar Abbasi via substituted service by leaving the 14 documents to “Rahida Abbasi” who was an occupant at the 15 Defendants’ home address [DE 17 at 1]. The Affidavit of Service 16 includes enough detail and meets the requirements of § 415.20. The 17 process server’s affidavit indicates that the person served was at least 18 18 years of age, was a competent member of the household at the 19 dwelling house or at the place of abode. It further states that the 20 process server informed the person served of the “general nature of 21 the papers”, which complies with section 415.20(b) that requires the 22 individual served was “informed of the contents.”

23 (Dkt. No. 28 at ¶ 11.) Plaintiff appears to be referring to the fact the process server checked box 24 5(b)(2) on the proof of service:

25 5. I served the party (check proper box) 26 a. by personal service. I personally delivered the documents listed in item 2 to the party or person authorized to 27 receive service of process for the party (1) on (date): (2) at (time): 28 b. by substituted service. On (date): 11/19/2023 at (time): 11:07 AM I left the documents listed in item 2 with or in the presence of (name and title or relationship to person indicated in item 3b):
Rahida Abbasi - Occupant/Accepting service
29 (1) (business) a person at least 18 years of age apparently in charge at the office or usual place of business of the 30 person to be served. I informed him of her of the general nature of the papers.
31 (2) (home) a competent member of the household (at least 18 years of age) at the dwelling house or usual place of abode of the party. I informed him or her of the general nature of the papers.

32 (Dkt. No. 17 at 1.) This is inadequate to demonstrate service because it does not include any facts 33 as to “Rahida Abbasi,” the person served. Specifically, Plaintiff failed to explain why the process 34 server believed Rahida Abbasi was a competent member of the household, at least 18 years of age,

1 at the dwelling house or place of abode of the Defendants.² See Judicial Council Comment to Cal.
2 Civ. Proc. Code § 415.20(b) (“The papers must be left in the presence of a competent member of 3 the household or a person apparently in charge of such business, as to case may be, who must be at 4 least 18 years of age and be informed of the general nature of the papers.”); see, e.g., McComb v.
5 Vejar, No. 2:14-CV-00941-RSWL-E, 2014 WL 5494017, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 28, 2014) (finding 6 the service of process on individual defendant was proper and complete when the proof of service stated the person was “the store manager and apparently in charge of the office or place of 7 business, at least 18 years of age, ... [and] informed of the general nature of the papers”).
8 Furthermore, Defendant cites no authority which suggests the proof of service would be deemed 9 sufficient without the physical description of the person served. Accordingly, the documents 10 before the Court do not demonstrate Plaintiff’s substitute service of process upon Mr. Abbasi was 11 legally sufficient.
12

13 2. Service on 420 Smoke Palace

14 Plaintiff also has not met its burden of demonstrating proper service on the business 15 defendant, 420 Smoke Palace. Plaintiff alleges 420 Smoke Palace is a sole proprietorship. (Dkt.
16 No. 1 at 2.) Plaintiff contends 420 Smoke Palace was properly served via substituted service 17 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e)(2)(B). (Dkt. No. 23 at 13.)

18 Unlike other business entities, a sole proprietorship has no legal existence separate from its 19 owner. Providence Wash. Ins. v. Valley Forge Ins., 42 Cal. App. 4th 1194, 1199 (1996) (“A sole 20 proprietorship is not a legal entity itself. Rather, the term refers to a natural person who directly 21 owns the business....”) (quotation marks and citation omitted; emphasis in original). To be sure, a 22 sole proprietorship may operate under a fictitious business name. See Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 23

24 ² Plaintiff is aware of these requirements as the proof of service for Mr. Abbasi in the related case 25 includes this additional information:

26 I delivered the documents to ATHAR ABBASI with identity confirmed by subject stating 27 their name. The individual accepted service with direct delivery. The individual appeared to be a black-haired Asian male contact 35-45 years of age, 5'6"-5'8" tall and weighing 140-160 lbs with a beard, a mustache and an accent.

28 (Case No. 22-7638, Dkt. No. 10 at 1.)

1 17900 et seq. However, “[t]he business name is a fiction, and so too is any implication that the 2 business is a legal entity separate from its owner.” Providence Wash. Ins., 42 Cal. App. 4th at 3 1200. Accordingly, service of process on a sole proprietorship “must accord with standards for 4 service of individuals.” Bd. of Trs. of Laborers Health & Welfare Tr. Fund for N. Cal. v. Perez, 5 2011 WL 6151506, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 7, 2011), report and rec. adopted as modified, 2011 WL 6 6149518 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 12, 2011); see also Walters v. Silveria, 2007 WL 2751217, at *1 (N.D.
7 Cal. Sept. 4, 2007), report and rec. adopted, 2007 WL 2751216 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 19, 2007) 8 (“[B]ecause Silveria Construction appears to be a sole proprietorship only ... the basic question is 9 whether Mr. Silveria, doing business as Silveria Construction, was properly served.”). The proof 10 of service for 420 Smoke Palace is identical to that for Mr. Abbasi. (Compare Dkt. No. 17 with 11 Dkt. No. 18.) 420 Smoke Palace was served via substituted service at the same 49006 Feather 12 Grass Ter, Fremont, Ca 94539-8404 address by leaving a copy with “Rahida Abbasi – 13 Occupant/Accepting service.” (Dkt. No. 18 at 1.) Plaintiff’s response to the Order Show Cause is 14 identical for 420 Smoke Palace. (Dkt. No. 28 at ¶ 14.) Thus, for the same reasons Plaintiff has 15 not met its burden to demonstrate proper service on Mr. Abbasi, it has not met its burden of 16 demonstrating proper service on the business defendant, 420 Smoke Palace.

CONCLUSION

18 Because Plaintiff’s motion does not establish Defendants were properly served with the 19 summons and complaint, the Court DENIES Plaintiff’s Motion for Default Judgment without 20 prejudice. Plaintiff’s deadline to serve Defendants is continued for 30 days; so, Plaintiff must file 21 a proof of service by August 22, 2024. The case management conference scheduled for August 22 29, 2024 is continued to October 17, 2024 at 1:30 p.m. via Zoom video. A joint case management 23 conference statement is due one week in advance.

24 This Order disposes of Docket No. 23.
